

Larson & Darby Group - K12

2009 AIA Northern Illinois Chapter Outstanding Firm of the Year

Monticello Middle School - Monticello CUSD 25

For almost 50 years, K-12 projects for both public and private schools have been a staple of our practice. Larson & Darby Group has delivered inspired design solutions for over 250 school projects for Illinois school districts ranging from Ashton to Wheaton and from new elementary, middle and high schools to gym and classroom addition/renovation projects. Our approach to school design begins with the needs of students, staff, and the greater community. Our understanding of educational environments and trends, coupled with your input, results in an attractive, secure, cost-effective, and user-friendly educational facility that contributes to your community for generations to come.
